MARRIAGE.
GEARY-WILLIAMSON.—At the Roman Catholic Cathedral, Hongkong, on the 14th January, by the very Rev. Father Vigano, J. WILLIAMSON, master a.s. Chow Fa, to ELIZABETH, eldest daughter of Captain John Geary, Singapore. [74a]

Mr. W. M. B. Arthur, chief clerk of the Magistracy, returned from leave of absence a few days ago and resumed his duties this morning.
Mr. Arthur's many friends will be glad to learn that he looks exceptionally well after his holiday.less sacred, on Republican principles, than is the Government of the United States.
Whether the United States is to crush
it for daring to come into existence
in just as orthodox a way remains to be seen.
But to the neutral non-Republican observer the position is a quaint one indeed. What is greatly to be feared is that the United States is going to do what it is hard at work persuading itself is the right thing to do, in a very ominously wrong sort of way. With the memories of 1776 to guide it, the efforts of Aguinaldo and his leaders to procure a radical revolution in the Philippines should have had the most thorough going support and the most absolute recognition. But if 1776 is something to play with, a dull tool to be used and put into a corner at will, why then the United States,
on the principle of might being right, are right.
Logically, of course, they were in the case wrong
in 1776, except in so far as they got their way.
It was not the cause that was righteous, though they shouted for it then; it was that they could put a bigger lot of musketeers into the field, and new the country better.Obviously the thing to do is to pro temporis recognise the National Government, provisionally, make it to treat with it recognising the Philippines as a protectorate, but possessing indefeasible rights of internal self-government, and then—if there was any doubt about the title of the Government under the Presidency of General Aguinaldo to represent the people
—arrange either for a plebiscite or for a confirming Constituent Assembly to be held who should endorse, or amend, the existing administration. We are told in a special telegram that General Aguinaldo is "coalescing" with the Americans. We do not know what or how much that means. But what we infer is that Aguinaldo is not offering resistance to the advance of the American forces over the country he has conquered, pending the promulgation of a declaration of policy on behalf of the United States. The case on the 24th, the Filipinos enter on the 26th and an American expedition leaves Manila on the 28th, apparently to dispute possession of Iloilo with its captors. Frankly, we feel anxious about the position of affairs in the Philippines. The Spaniards surrender on the 24th, the Filipinos enter on the 26th, and the Americans are wanted on the 28th. We have heard of the Manifesto of Emilio Aguinaldo,
"Manifesto of the President of the Revolutionary Government.

TROUBLE IN THE PHILIPPINES.

A NEW PHASE OF THE FILIPINO

sure that the Spanish nation was utterly incapable and unfit to assist the Filipinos in the aid to prosperity and progress. Therefore, the people greeted my arrival with rejoicings and I had the honour of being received with acclamation as chief, on account of the service which I rendered on the former revolution. Thereupon all the Filipinos without distinction of class took up arms and every province set to work to defeat and expel from its midst the Spanish forces located there. This is the explanation how, in such a remarkably short space of time, my Government has today acquired domination over the whole of Luzon, the whole of the Visayas, and a part of Mindanao. If the North Americans have taken any part in these military operations which have cost so small amount of blood and money, my Government does not fail to recognize that the destruction of the Spanish squadron and the handing over of some rifles from the arsenal to my people were influential some extent in the success of our arms. I was moreover convinced that the American forces must sympathize with the revolution which they had assisted to foment and which saved them much bloodshed and hard work and, above all, I had absolute confidence in the history and traditions of a nation which struggled for their independence and for the abolition of slavery and held itself up as the champion liberator of oppressed peoples under the safeguard of the good faith of a free people. The Americans, seeing the friendly disposition of the Philippine people disembarked their troops in the village of Paranaque and took up positions in the whole line occupied by my forces right up to Maytubig, taking possession by their cleverness, not unaccompanied by force, of a large quantity of trenches constructed by my people. Ultimately the garrison of Manila capitulated at the first attack, having been surrounded by my forces on the port of Cavite and the suburbs of Malate, Ermita, Sampaloc and Tondo. In spite of all these services, although the Spaniards never would have surrendered if my forces had not closed every road of retreat into the interior, the American Generals not merely left me out entirely in the terms of capitulation but even asked me to withdraw my forces from Cavite and the suburbs of Manila. I have laid before the American generals the injustice which has been done to me and I have begged them in the most friendly terms to recognize in a satisfactory manner my co-operation but they refused anything of the sort. Nevertheless, desirous always of demonstrating my friendship and good sentiments towards those who call themselves liberators of the Philippine people, I made my troops evacuate the port of Cavite, the suburbs of Ermita, Malate, Sampaloc and Tondo, only keeping a portion of the suburb of.

In spite of all these concessions, before many days passed Admiral Dewey, with only true, seized our launches which were plying freely about Manila Bay with our consent. About the same time I received a letter from General Otis the Commander in Chief of the American army of occupation, demanding that I should withdraw my forces beyond a line marked on a plan which he also sent me, within which line were the village of Pandacan, and the outlet of Singalong which never came within the heading "Manila and Suburbs".

ROBBERS AT YANGCHOW.

A Chinakong correspondent of a native paper writes that "robbers" are over-running the country and frightening the people at Yangchow, where a bank was lately broken into and $2,500 stolen. The street where the robbery occurred is called Sing Det, and in every shop it is a small bank for exchanging money. The bankers have asked the protection of the Magistrate against these raids on their property.

ANOTHER FIRE.

Another fire occurred at Shanghai at 7 o'clock on the evening of the 9th inst., causing the destruction of six Chinese shops Nos. 239 to 244 in the Seward Road. From the first the fire raged so fiercely that no hope was entertained of saving the property, consequently the firemen's efforts were directed to keeping the conflagration from spreading. We understand that the houses are Chinese-owned and covered by insurance, but were unable to gather any details.

THE JAPANESE AT THE CHUSANS.

In our last issue, says the China Gazette, of the 7th inst., we reprinted from the native press a paragraph, which has appeared this morning in our contemporary, re the Japanese men-of-war's men landing in the Chusan Islands by leave of the officials. We now find that the native reporter was slightly mixed, the facts of the case being that the Japanese Consul-General here telegraphed through Taotai Tsai to the Magistrate at Chusan Island that if a Japanese man-of-war came there he was to warn the people not to be frightened when she fired one of her big guns, as she was simply going for target practice. But there was nothing whatever mentioned about men being landed.

THE HEROIC ASSOCIATION.

A Hankow dispatch received in Shanghai reports the discovery by the authorities of that part of a formidable revolutionary society, called the "Heroic Association" (Ying-Asung Hui), the ramifications of which extend through the whole of the Liangkang and Hukung provinces. The Heroic Association is said to consist entirely of young men, and is an outcrop of the Kuan Hui society, the members of the former binding themselves to "do or die" for the aims of the parent society, instead of adopting the lethargic way of doing things that has always characterised the older Kuan Hui.

SHANGHAI AND THE NORTH.

(From Shanghai Papers.)

NAVAL MOVEMENTS.

H.M. ships Hermione and Iphigenia were at Woosung on Sunday. The latter went up to Shanghai and the former proceeded up the river to Nanking on the 9th inst.

FUNERAL OF MR. ABBEY.

On Saturday afternoon last at the Shanghai crematorium about twenty-five American gentlemen, among them being the Consul and Vice-Consul, attended the funeral of the late Mr. L. A. Abbey. The Rev. J. B. Hykes conducted the service.

LORD CHARLES BERESFORD.

A few of his friends, among whom was Lady Hannen, were at the jetty at 7 a.m. on the 9th inst. to say good-bye to Lord Charles Beresford, on his departure from Shanghai, and he was much amused by the crackle and bombs discharged, which he said reminded him of the Battle of Alexandria.

GRAIN RESERVES.

In obedience to Imperial Decrees the Governor of Kiangsu has given general instructions to all his subordinates to take steps for the reservation of grain in their districts. The Shanghai Magistrate on receipt of this order has commenced carrying it out.

THE REBELS.

An Ichang correspondent wires to the Universal Gazette stating that Prefect Chiu and Commander Wu have arrived at Yankuan. The rebels are prepared to offer desperate resistance, but so far no engagements have taken place.

CHINA'S DEFENCES.

The Universal Gazette says that Viceroy Liu Kunyi has received an urgent and private telegram from a high provincial official in consequence of which he commanded all the Yungkiang forts and ships of the Southern Squadron to be on the alert, lest any foreign nation should attempt aggression.

FOREIGN CAPITAL.

It is said that the Tsung-li Yamen have notified the Foreign Ministers that any foreigner wishing to invest capital in China, or make a loan, must apply through his Minister to the Tsung-li Yamen, and no contract not ratified by the Yamen will be recognised. The French Minister is reported to have pointed out that all existing contracts should be exempt from this rule.

YU MANTZU.

Viceroy Chang Chih-tung has received information by telegram from Szechuan that the suppression of Yu Mantzu and his hordes has been at last determined upon. The Viceroy has therefore ordered the Guards Division to proceed to the frontiers of Szechuan province in order that any advance of the rebels eastward may be cut off.

ROBBERS AT YANGCHOW.

A Chinakong correspondent of a native paper writes that "robbers" are over-running the country and frightening the people at Yangchow, where a bank was lately broken into and $2,500 stolen. The street where the robbery occurred is called Sing Det, and in every shop it is a small bank for exchanging money. THE RECENT RUSSIAN EXPLOSION.

Colonel Li, Commandant of the Chekiang provincial defence forces, says the Shen Wan Pao, has petitioned the governor to authorize the rebuilding of the gunpowder magazine without loss of time. He suggested that there need be no change of site as the old one was situated in a remote part of the city surrounded by earthen walls and two trenches. He added that the recent explosion had been caused by spontaneous combustion and if the guards take precaution in future, little danger would be apprehended. He also suggested several methods, both Western and Chinese, to be adopted for the prevention of accidents.

THE FORMOSAN REBELS.

A native despatch from Amoy to the Shen Wan Pao shows that according to statements made by some of the Chinese passengers on board the ss. Hsi-long from Tamsui, about a fortnight ago, the Chinese insurgents in Formosa had a battle with the Japanese troops at Taipeh. They succeeded by their flank movements in dodging the Japanese fire and coming upon close quarters a hand-to-hand engagement was fought. The Japanese killed numbered between three and four hundred; the rebels' loss did not reach one hundred. The rebels have captured Tzulan about seven or eight li from Taipeh where the inhabitants being greatly alarmed are crossing over to Amoy for safety.

CHANGYANG REBELS.

A despatch was received on Sunday night by Shanghai mandarins from Wuchang to the effect that a large body of desperadoes and rowdies from the district of Ch'angyang, Hupch, have recently commenced disturbances in that vicinity, led by a man with a banner in his hand bearing the legend, "Defenders of the Tsing Dynasty and Exterminators of Foreigners" that is to say, of missionaries and their converts. The despatch further states that as soon as Viceroy Chang Chih-tung was informed of the rising he at once ordered Colonel Liu, commanding the foreign-trained Viceregal Guards, at Wuchang, to embark his regiment immediately for the scene of disturbance. A Maxim battery also accompanies the expedition in question. These petty risings on the Hupeh-Szechuan borders are stated to be due to the tardiness of the high authorities of the latter province in crushing Yu Mantzu.

Captain John McCaffery's story that the Baltimore, the Charleston, Newport and Azores did lie outside the range of the city guns was true but that they were awaiting orders from the powers that be at Manila, for these ships sailed under the instructions that should the city of Iloilo be in the hands of the insurgents, they should await instructions before entering or attempting to reduce the city.

OCCUPATION OF ILOILO.

AMERICAN MARINES LANDED.

The Manila journal Freedom of the 7th instant says:

By the latest advices received from Iloilo by our special correspondent which accompanied the S.S. Arizona, on her downward trip Freedom is in a position to state authoritatively that on January 3rd the Stars and Stripes flew over the city of Iloilo, that a guard of marines from the Baltimore had marched into the city, were cordially received by the insurgents who informed the S. B. authorities that the city and island were theirs, as long as they would do for them what they had already done for the natives since the fall of Manila, August 13.

While the informant stands high in military circles, as wishes his name withheld from publicity, still the message he conveys from that section confirms that of Freedom which is to the effect that Uncle Sam is in quiet possession of Iloilo and that the insurgents after routing the Spaniards and capturing the city quietly policed the same and waited the arrival of the Americans.

Captain John McCaffery's story that the Baltimore, the Charleston, Newport and Azores did lie outside the range of the city guns was true but that they were awaiting orders from the powers that be at Manila, for these ships sailed under the instructions that should the city of Iloilo be in the hands of the insurgents, they should await instructions before entering or attempting to reduce the city.

THE SITUATION IN THE PHILIPPINES.

The Esmeralda brought news to-day that three Military American Commissioners are now attempting to arrange with representatives of the Filipino National Government terms of autonomy for the Philippines coupled with a protectorate by the United States. Uncle Sam, retaining only a coaling and naval station in the islands. This, we understand, is what the Filipinos have long been willing to grant and they have frequently appealed to the States through the Associated Press that Commissioners be appointed to settle in a peaceful manner all questions at issue between the two nations.

The report current in the City to-day, that there had been a "brush" in the suburbs of Manila, resulting in considerable bloodshed, appears to have been a "Mamia Bunder," for we are unable to obtain confirmation of it.
